Dear Jay,

Always remember the fun we've had in school and out. Don't ever forget this Algebra class & all the things we've discussed.
I've really gotten an education!
Remember the afternoon at Carolyn's and that car ride in the boom-docks.
Remember when Jack gets the car, you kids are suppose to pick me up too. Well, lots of luck to a wonderful kid.

Norma Hayer

Dear Jay,
Good luck in whatever you try to do. Remember if you want a good education play in
Mr. Richardson's class.

Susan

Dedication

The person who guided our golf team to a state victory in '56 and '57 and led them to three regional titles also has guided the minds and characters of not only students of shorthand, civics, economics, science, bookkeeping, and world history but of most all of us who have gone through school here in the last seven years.

After we members of the class of '59 leave WHS and time fades, the happy memories of high school days, and we forget the jokes about our teacher who graduated in "ought three" and whose $3 a week salary we all laughed about, we'll not forget the principles which we learned from this fine teacher and friend. Perhaps we'll come back to Whitehall and visit the Whitelake Golf Course, where he took over as manager in the spring of 1959. We're sure we'll find he's as well liked and as much of a success there as he was at our school.

To you Mr. Harold "Lou" Iverson, we, the Senior Class of 1959, dedicate our Annual "The Vikings Echo".

Class Will

- I, Harold Arman, will to Harry Barrett a pair of scissors, a free oil change, and enough good sense to cut off that mop.
- I, Janice Armstrong, will my ability to roll and wreck cars to anyone who can afford it!
- I, Leon Balcom, will my rusted out rocker panels to anyone who can afford to have them fixed.
- I, Joan Bennett, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Anne Pelon.
- I, Steve Berry, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to stay in school to Dennis Berry.
- I, Sandy Bloomberg, will my love for the Whitehall Cheerleaders to the student body.
- I, Connie Broner, hereby will my ability to catch up on my sleep in Econ. class to any future Senior who needs it.
- I, Linda Buys, will my wink to my sister, may she use it to the best of her advantage.
- I, Ray Capek, will my ability of being a normal band student and occasionally being flat to Janeen Morat who never is.
- I, Diane Cassleman, leave my ability to study to Pat O'Connell as his family says he needs it.
- I, Charles Caviness, will my ability to get along with more than one girl to my younger brother Rudy, seeing it runs in the family.
- I, Dennis Cleary, leave my paint brush to anyone who is dumb enough to paint 59's with it,
- I, Roger Cole, will my book of passes to anyone who gets caught late.
- I, Charles Collins, leave my nickname "Tiny" to Janeen Morat because she is so short.
- I, Rosita Davis, will to "Curly", or Betty Bartlett my quiet ways. She needs them.
- I, Jim Dowker, will my Hot Rod to anyone who has a crank.
- I, Jack Flanery, will to the Freshmen girls, the best thing that can be willed upon them, MYSELF!
- I, Barb Fortenbacher, will to the Juniors, a step ladder to get down off their high horse.
- I, Maureen Gibbs, will my ability to get into trouble to whoever thinks they can get out of it.
- I, Suzanne Grate, will my political views to Saburt Atkinson to further his career in becoming the next Democratic Governor of Michigan.
- I, Roger Gravengood, will some of the chemicals in the chemistry room to the hot lunch program in hopes that they can come up with something new.
- I, Sharon Hayes, will all my friends in North Muskegon to Sidney Harvey, who thinks she already has them.
- I, George Hein, will my blonde curls to Sandra Brand who needs them worse than I.
- I, Dennis Hertel, will my position on the baseball team to anyone that can figure out what it was!
- I, John Hogan, will my cast iron forearm pad to Bill Brogren for future use on a Montague football player.
- I, Ted Inman, will my dancing ability to David Pray.
- I, Barb Irwin, being of sound mind will my term paper to Lois Ann Scott in hopes that she might graduate next year.
- I, Glenn Irwin, will my ability to keep quiet in study hall to Norma Hoyer in the hopes that she will use it.

I, Ray Iteen, will all my forged pass slips to anyone who seems to be having a hard time getting to class on time.

I, Stu Jamieson, will to Sidney Harvey my red ivy league slacks. She will fully fill them I'm sure.

I, Judy Janssens, being of sound mind do hereby bequeath to Doris Brownyard my love of life.

I, Don Johanson, will my big feet to Marty Nyberg, who hardly needs them.

I, hate to disappoint anyone, but I'm taking everything with me. Joan Jordon.

I, Janet King, will my seat in Math Analysis to any girl who wants a REAL education!!

I, Sandra Klett, will my chauffer to school to my nephew, Roger Ralph, so he won't get out of condition for sports.

I, Inez Koski, will my ability to wear loose fitting clothes to Jeanne Laham.

I, Lyna Leitch, will my weekend parties to my sister, Susan, in hopes that she can have as much fun as I've had.

I, Carol Loy, will my position on the girls' basketball team to my brother Doug.

I, Bill Maclaurin, being a potent .200 hitter, bequeath my nickname of R. B. I. to Jim Koslosky in hopes that he can win more late inning thrillers for the Vikings.

I, Joan McClain, will to John Hogan upon his departure, my guitar playing ability because he needs it worse than I do.

I, Jerry McGoran, will my golfing ability to Mr. Iverson.

I, Lois Meier, will David Pray my dictionary so he can look up the meaning of the word QUIET!!

I, Dorrene Muerrer, will my size 5 shoe to Marty Nyberg to wear on his big toe.

I, Marlene Middlecamp, in sound mind will my keys to the Dark Room to Janet Schaub and David Pray who can make use of them.

I, Merv Mitchell, will my smile to anyone who can use it to advantage.

I, Carolyn Moore, leave my calm and unflurried ways to Pat Reilly.

I, Annamarie Morat, will my short height to Jilleen Grieve.

I, Georgan Morris, will my wink to anyone who thinks they could put up with the razzing I get.

I, Karen Mosley, will my natural colored hair to Pat Reilly who can't seem to make up her mind what color hers should be.

I, Judy Norwick, being of solemn mind do here by will my red hair follicles to Charlene Byron who needs them.

I, Charles O'Connell, will the oscilloscope I made (which by the way, is used for measuring vibrations) to Joan Harvey who may be able to give a better demonstration than I did.

I, Jack Paggeot, leave my married life to anyone in the Junior class who needs it.

I, Loel Potter, will my bowling ability to get a turkey to Dave Johnson.

I, Harold Randles, will all my good times over at Dorothy's to Deane Henderson for she's always over there.

I, Frieda Reeves, will the time I have spent studying to Ed Luzadder (who never studies) hoping that he will get more out of it than I did.

I, David Riggs, will my height to Bill Koski.

I, Don Roberts, will my ability to receive low citizenship marks in Mrs. Nelson's Speech class to anyone who can talk enough to earn them.

I, Charles Schechter, will my ability to get along with Karen Wells to her brother Ronnie.

I, Ed Shalifoe, will my cornet playing ability to Janeen Morat. She needs it.

I, Sandy Simonson, will my naturally curly hair to Elaine Kramer in hopes that she'll be able to manage it.

I, Sally Speese, will my summer tan to Kevin Cleary so he won't have to miss any school in acquiring his own.

I, Mary Swenson, will my ability of keeping my temper to Coach DeYoung, who will need it next year during time-out at basketball games.

I, Lois Thomas, do gladly will all my good times to Jilleen Grieve.

I, Judy VanSlyke, will my job at Dowker's Drugstore to Alberta Kubik so she can scoop out some dips like the big one she already has.

I, Sharon Weeks, being of sound mind, will it to Nancy Pierce.

I, Spud Wolfe, will Jay Yarwood's friendship for me to Eva Bush who will be most happy to receive it.

I, Herb Wright, being of sound mind and body will it to any good looking girl.

I, Jay Yarwood, will my easy going manner to Ken Ledford in hopes that he'll know what to do with it.

Mary Swenson, Treasurer; Spud Wolfe, President;
Sharon Hayes, Secretary; Stuart Jamieson, Vice-President.

Class

The hands of time were wound when we started kindergarten in 1946. Miss Mott and Mrs. Byam were our teachers. Our Classmates were Janice Armstrong, Leon Balcom, Joan Bennett, Sandy Bloomberg, Charles Collins, Jim Dowker, Jack Flanery, Maureen Gibbs, Barb Irwin, Janet King, Sandy Klett, Lyna Leitch, Georgan Morris, Harold Randles, Charles Schecter, Sandy Simonson, Sally Speese, Herby Wright, and Jay Yarwood.

At one o'clock we gained five new members, George Hein, Charlie O'Connell, Mary Swenson, Sharon Weeks, and Ray Iteen.

Two o'clock came and we had a talent show. No new members joined us that hour.

Three o'clock and all is well. This year we presented a gym show. We gained Suzanne Grate, Roger Gravengood, Carolyn Moore, Spud Wolfe, and Judy VanSlyke.

Four o'clock came quickly. Charlie Caviness was the sole new member to join us. We took a trip to a maple syrup farm in the spring.

If you found us at five o'clock, you would see a class of hard workers, selling cup cakes, donuts, and candy apples, early training for a major pre-occupation throughout our academic career. For that was the year we went to the Shrine Circus in Grand Rapids and ate at the Pantland Hotel. New faces were Ray Capek, Rosita Davis, Don Johnson, Steve Berry, and David Riggs.

At six o'clock some of us became band members.

Seven o'clock came and we moved into the old senior high building. Harold Arman, Judy Norwick, Ted Inman, Bob Johnson, Joan Jordon, Inez Koski, Jerry McGoren, Merv Mitchell, Frieda Reeves, Ed Shalifore, and Lois Thomas joined us in our studies there.

Eight o'clock and we ruled the roost, the older students moved into the new high school and we were the big bosses, we thought. Diane Casselman, Barb Fortenbacher, Dennis Hertel, and Jim Berlin joined us. The last day of school when one third of our class skipped, we were caught and had to attend school one day extra after everyone else was out for Summer Vacation. Also we visited the Hackley Library, Muskegon Museum, and the B. C. Cobb Plant.

History

At last nine o'clock came and we were freshmen scum. First we had to be initiated. It was a big day, raw oysters, eggs, peanut butter, and the funniest looking creatures. Some new ones were John Hogan, Lois Meier, Karen Mosley, Annamarie Morat, Jack Paggeot, Loel Potter and Don Roberts. Leading our class were Spud Wolfe, President; Barb Fortanbacher, Vice-President; Jack Flanery, Secretary; and Suzanne Grate, Treasurer.

At ten o'clock Judy Janssens, Joan McClain, Dorrene Muerer, and Marlene Middlecamp joined us. That hour we selected and ordered our class rings. Our officers were: Harold Arman, President; Pat Seymour, Vice-President; Sandy Simonson, Secretary; Jack Flanery, Treasurer.

Eleven o'clock, the big moment has arrived! This is the year we give the Junior-Senior Prom, using the Japanese theme "Sayonara". Everyone had a wonderful time. A buffet dinner was held right at the prom. New members were Connie Broner, Glen Irwin, Stu Jamieson, Denny Cleary, Carol Loy, and Harold Santo. Class officers were: Charles O'Connell, President; Georgan Morris, Vice-President; Sharon Hayes, Secretary; and Jack Flanery, Treasurer.

Twelve o'clock and the day is almost over. Linda Buys, and Jerry Knowles, our new members, helped us in initiating the freshmen and making life miserable for them. We presented our Senior Play "Come Out of the Closet". Our officers are: Spud Wolfe, President; Stu Jamieson, Vice-President; Sharon Hayes, Secretary; Mary Swenson, Treasurer. We're planning a skip trip to end this day, but where we'll end up nobody knows. Time is running out . . . . . and we are getting ready for a new day and looking forward to what lies ahead for us.

Senior Float

Homecoming

Victory was the keynote that evening with our Homecoming following through as a big success. The evening's activities started with a parade of floats from various classes and clubs, and the marching band, highlighted with the queen of our school, Miss Judy VanSlyke and her court. Following the parade the floats were judged and first place was shared between the Junior Class and the F. H. A.

At the victorious game the Vikings trounced the visiting Norsemen from North Muskegon 33-13, and the Queen's Court was honored at halftime with the Band presenting a corsage of white roses to Judy.

Following the game, Queen Judy and King Roger Graven-good and their court were crowned at the Coronation Ball held in the High School Gym where the students and alumni danced to the music of the Harold Bosch Orchestra.

The King and Queen's court was as follows: Sandy Simonson and Ted Inman, seniors; Carolyn Ottman and Dick White, juniors; Judy Fris and Stanley Markovitch, sophomores; and Mary Gee and Chuck Hiddema, freshmen.

Three girls from Ohio, Hilda, Irene, and Jenny, all eager and excited, hoping to establish jobs in New York, are compelled by circumstances to rent a shabby, run-down apartment from a greedy landlady, Mrs. Malone, on their first night in town. The oddest thing about the apartment is the locked closet with no key, but there must be a key, for they see shadowy figures come out of it at night, carrying boxes. The girls don't have enough money for all three of them to stay, so they tell Mrs. Malone that Jenny is just a visitor helping them move, but when Mrs. Malone makes her unexpected visits they have to hide Jenny in the closet (which they found out wasn't locked all the time). The girls didn't know it at first but they have many unusual neighbors who intrude themselves in one way or other. Mr. and Mrs. Cutter, who have a week old baby have to share the girls kitchen with them, and a Guthrie Rosewater, who is a "modernistic" poet. Later they find that he has been making counterfeit money up in his room and hiding it in the locked closet. The girls also find out that that is what made the awful noise they heard the other night. Abbie Philips is his Muse, and she seems like a nice old lady, but turns out to be one of the gang. The girls become worried, so Jenny hires a bodyguard to protect them, who is none other than Hercules Jones, one time taxi driver and one time boxer. George Hanson who is Irene's fiance decides he has to stay if Hercules stays. This develops into a real brawl and Mrs. Malone finds out about the boys and Jenny staying in the apartment and says they all are a gang and calls the police, namely Officer Sweeney (who is blinder than a bat). As the events turn out George and Hercules reveal the "secret of the closet" and the police arrive in time to hand-cuff the real culprits and the girls are much happier with their landlady on Twenty-Second Street.

Student Council

ROW ONE: L. Snook, Mr. Fanberg, Advisor; J. Flanery, Treasurer; B. Edson, Corresponding Secretary; Harold Arman, President; J. VanSlyke, Recording Secretary; J. Sharpe, Vice-President; S. Simonson, K. Purdy. ROW TWO: J. Snook, J. Kozera, L. Vihtelic, C. Loy, F. Longtin, D. Pray, B. Johnson, D. Snider, S. Speese, S. Owen, P. Rogers.

The Student Council under the direction of advisor, Mr. John Fanberg, has had a great deal of success this year. Selling concessions at games, organizing dances, picking assemblies, and handling class funds are just some of the duties performed.

National Honor Society

ROW ONE: Mr. Flower, Advisor; D. Casselman, Secretary; J. King, President; S. Speese, Treasurer; J. VanSlyke, Vice-President. ROW TWO: S. Grate, L. Knowlton, B. Johnson, D. Pray, K. Purdy, P. Krapf.

These students were elected by the faculty on the basis of character, service, leadership, and scholarship. The letters on the emblem held by President Janet King, represent these qualities. The torch symbolizes the light of truth. The group's motto is, "Virtue non verbis", and their official flower is a yellow rose.

Debate Team

Mrs. Nelson, Advisor; W. Schwartz, S. Jamieson, D. Sunde, T. Inman, B. Johnson, A. Peterson, S. Harvey, N. Neilsen, P. Reigler, K. Ledford.

With the able assistance of Mrs. Nelson, the Debate Team was organized this year. Due to lack of experience on the part of most members, the year was devoted to learning by observation of other debates and debate clinics. Next fall they will take part in an active debating schedule and are hoping for a successful season.

Dramatics Club

ROW ONE: Mrs. Nelson, Advisor; I. Caviness, Secretary; A. Peterson, Historian; S. Jamieson, President; S. Stevens, Parliamentarian; K. Purdy, Vice-President; S. Harvey, Sergeant at Arms; D. Sunde, Treasurer; ROW TWO: J. Morat, P. Reigler, J. Langdon, W. Carlson, W. Schwartz, L. Rhymes, N. Neilsen, J. Schaub, F. Stockwell. ROW THREE: P. Krapf, I. Koski, R. Genereaux, M. Middlecamp, P. Jones, B. Bartlett, C. Broner, S. Santo, P. Binns. ROW FOUR: K. Ledford, J. Uithoven, B. Johnson, J. Sharpe, L. Swenson, D. Prey, D. Gelvin, T. Inman, K. Sunde, B. Edson

The Dramatics Club under the leadership of Mrs. Nelson has been quite active this year. Special emphasis was placed on spring forensics work, with Mrs. Nelson working individually with each student on humorous readings, orations, declamations, and dramatic monologues. A constitution and by-laws were drawn up and officers were elected.

F. H. A.

ROW ONE: D. Anderson, Secretary; L. Knowlton, President; B. Genereaux, Assistant Reporter; B. Bartlett, Pianist; C. Barnhard, Co-reporter; B. Sagan, Treasurer; C. Heck, Parliamentarian; A. Pelon, Song Leader, J. Harkema, Vice President; R. Davis, Historian. ROW TWO: Mrs. Fanberg, Advisor; M. Homminga, J. Schuab, S. Leitch, P. Bradshaw, V. Lundell, A. Dillabaugh, D. Stuart, C. Arman, K. Barrett. ROW THREE: S. Porter, C. Sagan, C. Hively, H. Hilton, J. Grieve, J. Seaver, K. Well, J. Jordan, Co-reporter; D. Henderson.

The Future Homemakers of America have had as usual a busy year. With activities ranging from selling at games, having clothes drives, parties, the annual regional meeting, an annual Christmas basket for a needy family, and making favors for Shelby Hospital food trays, they are helping to build America's future communities.

Science Club

ROW ONE: L. Buys, B. MacLaurin, President; Mr. Fanberg, Advisor; G. Irwin, Vice President; B. Wilson. ROW TWO: L. Vihtelic, B. Binns, D. Sunde, J. Hunt, N. Ulman. ROW THREE: L. Hein, J. Yarwood, L. Swenson, M. Nyberg, S. Poe, C. O'Connell.

The success of the science club in its first year of organization has been marked by the technological knowledge gained by the members' work on their various projects. A few of the projects that have been completed this year are the making of an oscilloscope by Charles O'Connell, the qualitative analysis of the rare earths by Bill MacLaurin, photography work by Linda Buys, and biological research by Betty Wilson.

The club sponsored a science show this spring for the high school at which many of the projects were shown to inspire interest in science.

F. N. C.

C. Heck, Secretary; G. Morris, Vice President; B. Johnson, L. Meier, President; Mrs. Gustafson, Advisor; G. Peterson, A. Pelon, Treasurer; D. Casselman, L. Buys, Corresponding Secretary, V. Brown.

The Future Nurses Club is organized to help stimulate an interest in nursing. Mrs. Florence De Witt, Public Health Nurse, and Mrs. Marcus Gustafson, our school nurse, have given talks to the group. Their first project was to make tray favors for Shelby Hospital which they personally delivered and a tour of the hospital followed. Tours of Hackley, Mercy, and Butterworth hospitals are planned for this spring.

Y. F. C.

ROW ONE: V. Sherwood, B. Wilson, M. Balcom, J. Prow, R. Bunnell, C. Heck, J. Homminga. ROW TWO: P. Johnson, J. Smith, D. Sunde, Quiz Team Captain; N. Witt, J. Berlin, J. Hogan, G. Hein.

The Safe-Teen organization although only in its second year has been very active and successful. Ten representatives were sent to Muskegon to attend the annual county-wide Safe-Teen Conference, and while present were awarded a plaque with an excellent rating for the second consecutive year.

Dance Band

ROW ONE: C. Quaife, R. Genereaux, J. Hunt, B. Johnson, N. Nyberg, M. Middlecamp, K. Purdy. ROW TWO: R. Capek, J. Snider, T. Inman, R. Iteen, J. Flanery, J. Morat, E. Shalifoe.

Robed Choir

ROW ONE: J. Harvey, S. Hayes, M. Lathrop, C. Nelson, B. Johnson, B. Brogren, L. Vihtelic, R. Wells, H. Auston, J. Norwick, J. Langdon, C. Hively, S. Dial, N. Neilsen. ROW TWO: K. Wells, S. Harvey, J. Seaver, J. Fris, A. Peterson, J. Hogan, J. O'Connell, D. Root, C. Caviness, M. Longmire, S. Sorensen, J. Bunting, A. Lewis, D. Copeland, J. Bennett, A. Pelon, P. Krapf, B. Fortenbacher, C. Tambling, K. Ledford, J. Berlin, L. Swenson, R. Koski, F. Longtin, F. Evans, D. Galvin, E. Kramer, S. Simonson, K. Purdy, M. Sherwood, J. Snook, B. Bartlett, G. Morris, S. Brand, L. Leitch, U. Montgomery, J. Jordan, W. Rankin, T. Kesteloot, F. Walker, M. Mitchell, C. O'Connell, S. Poe, W. Schwartz, L. Randall, B. Edson, M. Purdy, P. Seymour, C. Barry.

This group of 65 is picked by individual auditions with Mr. Mumroe. The choir attends the district festival, sings for many other occasions, puts on concerts, and sends groups to the yearly Solo and Ensemble Festival in Grand Rapids.

Girl's Chorus

ROW ONE: J. Wackerow, S. Parsons, N. Pierce, C. Sogan, M. Horne, D. Goforth, J. Battle, S. Porter, J. Walker, V. Copeland, L. Rankin. ROW TWO: J. Hill, S. Yeager, P. O'Dell, S. Lietch, L. Lundell, N. Anderson, S. Maslen, K. Buys, A. Leek, J. Smith, J. Operhall, G. Lichner.

This talented group of young ladies numbers 24. Under the leadership of Mr. Mumroe they have sung at several important occasions including the Christmas Concert.

Vikaleers

ROW ONE: N. Neilsen, B. Bartlett, J. McClain, S. Harvey, J. Bennett, T. Kesteloot, C. O'Connell, J. Berlin, J. Hunt, K. Ledford, J. Hogan, J. O'Connell, B. Brogren, C. Caviness. ROW TWO: B. Fortenbacher, B. Edson, S. Simonson, P. Seymour, J. Norwick, M. Longmire.

The Vikaleers were originally composed of the top 20 singers in Robed Choir, and later this group opened to anyone in school who could pass the audition. They are directed by Mr. Mumroe, who arranges for them to sing at school assemblies, concerts, and PTA meetings.

Choir Council

J. Norwick, B. Bartlett, M. Mitchell, C. O'Connell, P. Krapf, B. Johnson.

With Charles O'Connell as president, Merv Mitchell as vice-president, Peggy Krapf as business manager, and three librarians, this council is very helpful in organizing the choir. Mr. Mumroe is their advisor.

Paper Staff

The function of a school paper is to publish school news while it is news, and to aid in forming and guiding public opinion through it's editorial pages. The Co-Editors, Betty Bartlett and Carol Heck, of the "High-Life" and their advisor, Mr. James Price, along with the rest of the staff, have striven to do this, and to publish a paper as often as possible that was as interesting, informative, and educational as they could make it.

WE HOPE YOU HAVE ENJOYED OUR

ANNUAL

THANK YOU!

Annual Staff of 1959

Jay,
I have gotten to know you through Carolyn this year and you have proved to be a real sharp guy.
I wish you all the luck
in the world in whatever you do in life.
Good luck with Carlie
Pattie U.S.
"61"

Jay,
Be good & have fun next year "Big brother" ? Love
Sara

Jay,
Here's a little advice,
if you need it, don't let
the big "C" get you down.
I think you are real sharp for a freshman that is. I hope some day you and Kiva get together (HA-HA) Keep singing that song "Battle of New Orleans".
Please stop fighting with
She always takes it out on
P.C.S. and me. Love (Blah)
Karen Kiva (that is)

Jay,
Best of luck
always to a real boy? (man)?
cute freshman boy.
Be good to you know who, and the next time I come up I want to see you and her!
Still together.
Always,
Judy U.

Dear Jay,

I'll keep an eye on Carolyn for you & you watch Jerry if you see him on the golf course. Maybe someday you'll be as good as he is.

When are you going to let Carolyn ride in the front seat with you?
